DETAILS:

I. PRESS CONFERENCES OR OTHER APPEARANCES OF DANIEL ELLSBERG

"The Boston Globe," a daily Boston newspaper, in its August 5, 1971, edition carried an article entitled "Ellsberg Says Court Test Will Be Welcome," which in part reported that following a ruling on August 4, 1971, by United States Magistrate PETER W. PRINCI recommending that ELLSBERG be returned to Los Angeles to face an indictment, ELLSBERG held an impromptu press conference on the front steps of his 10 Hilliard Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, residence. According to the article, during the press conference, ELLSBERG declined to comment on PRINCI's ruling except to state that he hoped Federal Judge W. ARTHUR GARRITY, JR., who was to review PRINCI's ruling on August 5, 1971, would not agree with it. state, however, "but this case is certainly moving towards a full court test of every aspect of it" and that neither he nor his attorneys were opposed to the case being tried by a judge and jury. He emphasized that important Constitutional rights relating to the First and Fourth Amendments were at issue and vowed that he and his counsel would refuse to cooporate with the government in suspending or abridging these rights. The article quoted him as stating "I would like to see this case serve every benefit it can to strengthen Constitutional rights in this country."

In answer to a question as to whether he minded the prospect of a trial in California, he replied there were "pros and cons of convenience and other matters involved"; but he asserted "I'll have many days in court and I'll raise these important Constitutional issues every time I can."

The article further reported that ELLSBERG, raising his voice, continued "I hope we don't have to wait five Presidents from now. I hope President NIXON will decide the people have a need and a right to know the truth about the recommendations, the estimates that justified his dropping in the past two years more explosives on Vietnam than the United States dropped in all theaters in World War II."

In a press interview of Doctor DANIEL ELLSBERG, which was held on the afternoon of August 5, 1971 and televised on the 11:00 p.m., Channel 4 News, on the evening of August 5, 1971, ELLSBERG was pictured standing in front of his residence, 10 Hilliard Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, wearing casual attire. ELLSBERG was being interviewed relative to the ruling of Judge W. ARTHUR GARRITY on August 5, 1971, that he, ELLSBERG, be removed to the Central District of California, at Los Angeles, California, in accordance with a warrant of arrest previously issued in that District for him.

During this interview, ELLSBERG stated that he was disappointed that the American public has not seen all of the Pentagon papers. ELLSEERG stated that the "New York Times" and the "Washington Post" have these papers but the public has not seen them. The newspapers have these papers but have only rublished a tiny fraction of them.

"The Boston Globe" in its August 6, 1971, edition carried an article entitled "Ellsberg Ordered Arraigned August 16 in California," which makes reference to the above ruling by Judge GARRITY.

The article also reported that reporters had been able to intercept ELLSBERG as he was leaving his residence destined to a local laundry with a bag of dirty clothes. The article continued in part as follows:

When asked concerning Judge GARRITY's decision, ELLSBERG stated "Not surprising" and praised his lawyers for raising "important Constitutional issues." ELLSBERG said he was convinced he did the right thing by leaking the forty-seven volume Pentagon Study and that he had intended that the entire study should have been made available so that "the American public would be able to consider them, examine them and form their own opinions on issues of war and peace and on the issue of how they are served by the executive of their government." ELLSBERG evidenced disappointment because two months after "this thing began, no newspaper has printed anything but a very tiny fraction of the Pentagon Papers. 'The New York Times' and the 'Washington Post' have most of the papers but the public doesn't have them. I have to say that means many newspapers in this country which have access to large sections of the Pentagon Study are now in the business of withholding it from the American public just as the Defense Department was for so long in that business." ELLSBERG conceded that a Bantam Focketbook on the study of the war is useful but he contended "It contains less than one-tenth of the complete study." He said the fact that the newspapers have printed only a small portion of the Pentagon Papers "is understandable from the point of view of the newspapers." However, he said the public must La have access to the entire study to appreciate that the Vietnam War is an American war. He further stated "I can say it, a newspaper can say it, but it doesn't get through. What gets through is to hold in your hands the weight of 7,000 documents and look at them and discover the degree to which American officials were caught up in the day-to-day detailed decision making in this war." He continued by stating that the realization that this is an American war should make more urgent the necessity to end the war and "It is up to us, the citizens, the newspapers, Congress, the courts, and anyone who has participated in the war to end it."

The "Los Angeles Times," a daily Los Angeles, California, newspaper, in its August 9, 1971, edition carried an article entitled "Ellsberg Plots Strategy with Peace Groups, " which is datelined at Wellfleet, Massachusetts. The article in part reported that "Daniel Ellsberg's increasing willingness to ally himself with other parts of the anti-war movement was apparent here over the weekend when he spoke at a fund-raising event for the eight defendants indicted at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, in the alleged conspiracy to destroy draft records and to kidnap Presidential adviser Henry Kissinger." The article reported that ELLSBERG in his speech on Friday (August 5, 1971) said the examples and arguments of PHILIP and DANIEL BERRIGAH, who are in Federal Prison at Danbury, Connecticut, for destroying draft records, and other of the Harrisburg defendants had affected his decision to risk prison by helping to make the Pentagon Papers public. The article reported that ELLSBERG spoke to an audience of about 300 gathered in the sand dunes overlooking the Atlantic Ocean at the summer home of . Yale University Psychiatry Professor and that ELLSEERG's talk reportedly helped raise $7,000 for the Harrisburg Defense Fund. _ ROBERT LIFTON

The article further reported that ELLSBERG had also met on Saturday (August 7, 1971) near Wellfleet "with about twenty-five peace movement leaders and workers," which group included the defendants indicted at Harrisburg with the exception of PHILIP BERRIGAN and who TEO GUCK were reportedly in prison. Also present, according to the article, were "three of those convicted at last years's Chicago Seven trial - and MAM John Fryines, as well as several processors:

It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, Internal factionalism during 1970. 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

Weatherman, formerly a faction of SDS, controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the CPUSA for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

A characterization of the RYM is contained in the appendix.

Wooden racks that held 200 pairs of shoes had been built just prior to the date of the party so that those attending the party could shed their shoes and walk more comfortably through the sand. The reception or party began at approximately 5 p.m. and lasted for approximately three hours. Those attending appeared to be summer residents of the Wellflaet, Cape Cod, Massachusetts, area and a few year-round residents. The majoraty of cars in the parking area bore license plates from states other than Massachusetts. Motion pictures with sound were taken when ELLSBERG was introduced and while he spoke. by

DOCTOR LIFTON ELLSBERG's talk lasted approximately fifteen minutes and concerned his reasons for changing from a "hawk" to a "dove" so far as the Vietnam War was concerned. He also rationalized his taking the "Pentagon Papers" or "Me Hamara Study" papers and turning them over to newspapers. ELLSBERG said nothing that had not previously been said by him to newspapers or other news media except that he did state he first/turned the papers over to United States Senator J. WILLIAM FULBRICHT FOR BAS AHMAD -

In addition to ELLSBERG, one of the defendants indicted at Harrisburg, Pennaylvania, spoke briefly regarding the "Harrisburg Trial" and the topic of peace. Because the affair was held outdoors and spoke English with difficulty and in a low voice, most of what he said was not heard. Those in attendance were given the opportunity to voluntarily contribute for the defense of ELLSBERG and the defendants in the Harrisburg trial. The amount collected was not known, although it appeared to be small on that occasion.

It appeared that the audience was divided evenly as to support or nonsupport of the speakers as only approximately one-half of those present stood and applauded at the close of the talk.

ELLSBERG arrived at approximately 7:30 p.m. with his wife and apologized to the group for being an hour late.

The "Provincetown Advocate," a Provincetown, Massachusetts, weekly newspaper, in its August 12, 1971, edition carried an article captioned "Hero of Press at that DANIEL ELLSBERG, "the former government official who

, a "spectacular location on the dunes overlookin the ocean." The article further reported in part as follows:

The guests at the party parked their cars on Ocean View Drive where home is located, walked past the house down a trail "decorated with humorous anti-war posters to the high dunes. There, they took off their shoes, drank gin and tonic, and gathered to listen to Ellsberg and other speakers."

The occasion was the 26th anniversary of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and the funds were being raised for the Harrisburg Defense Committee which is providing legal defense for Father PHILIP BERRIGAN and others. charged with conspiring to kidnap HENRY KISSINGER, mentioned above.

ELLSBERG spoke after a bout of folk singing and a dramatic reading by a woman who was later identified as "In a soft voice, he tied all the themes together. He told how he remembered hearing of the bombing of Hiroshima on the radio as a fourteen-year-old. (He said he was bothered by the tone of absolute certainty in President TRUMAN's voice)."

ELLSBERG spoke about his own career, his time in the Marines, his "risking death" as a government official in Vietnam, and finally his questioning of the war. He said the turning point was a conference of the War Resistors' League when he met men who had spent up to seven years in jail because they refused to serve in the Army even in World War II. He asked the question of himself "If I could risk death for something I believed in (as a Marine, later in Vietnam), why can't I risk going to jail for

"something else I believe in?" He then said he turned over copies of the secret Pentagon report to Congressmen, including Senator J. WILLIAM FULBRIGHT, but that the Congressmen did nothing. As a result, he finally went to the press and now he finds himself under indictment on two counts of illegal possession of secret documents.

ELLSBERG also linked the actions of the Harrisburg defendants to his own, stating they acted independent of him but they all risked jail in order to strike a blow against the war. In speaking in general terms about the war, he said the American people need HITLERS to fight against so that everything their generals and presidents do in a war is justified like the Hiroshima bombing. He also said the late HO Chi-minh was our HITLER in this war.

ELLSBERG further commented that not all the Pentagon Papers had been made public as yet and added "What the Pentagon Fipers taught me was that the war was illegal and not a single death was justified."

II. MIT, HARVARD UNIVERSITY, AND BEACON PRESS

MICHAEL KENNY "The Boston Globe" in its August 15, 1971, edition carried an article entitled "MIT, Harvard Presses Won't Publish Papers" by Globe staff, which in part reported that both the Harvard University and MIT newspapers had decided against publishing a complete version of the Pentagon Papers. According to the article, the MIT Press was formally offered the fortyseven volumes of narrative and documents pertaining to the Vietnam War and the decision not to publish them had been made by the Editorial Board after consultation with attorneys. The Harvard University newspaper reportedly was never formally offered the Pentagon Papers but decided the cost of publishing them would be too high.

According to the article, the versions that were under consideration reportedly would have included material not published in "The New York Times," "Washington Post," "The Boston Globe," or other newspapers and would have been more than twice as large as the Dantam Books! edition. The article quoted the Harvard University Press Director as stating that a publishing venture of that size "would be beyond our reach." He is also quoted as stating that Harvard was "never offered them formally but that press officials "heard they were available."

ROBERT M. BEELS

The article further reported that DANIEL EILSBERG was not involved in the offerio of the papers to MIT as stated by MIT spokesman According to the papers were brought to the MIT Press on July 23, 1971, by a person or persons he would not identify who HOWARD L showed them to the MIT Press Director and the Board requested to obtain advice from MIT's attorneys. According to the attorneys, after studying the United States Supreme Court decision in "The New York Times" - "Washington Post" cases, stated "they could not say whether it would be legal or would not be legal to publish. Accordingly, the Board then met on July 29, 1971, and decided to abandon the project.

The Institute for Policy Studies (IPS) has been characterized in an article by EDITH KERMIT ROOSEVELT appearing on page 22 of the September 24, 1967, edition of a former Washington, D. The article reported that, through its conferences and seminars, the IPS asserts a continuing influence on the ideology and tactics of the New Left.

ARNOLD S. TOUGLI GOBINSTAIR

At approximately 3:20 p.m. on August 17, 1971, a press conference was held in a office in the rear of the Beacon Press Company building, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts which was conducted by Director. Beacon Press, and , Editor in Chief of the Beacon Press. This press donference originally scheduled for 3 p.m. that day was held to announce that the Beacon Press in cooperation with Senator MIKE CRAVEL of Alaska, would publish a 4 volume set of books entitled "The Defense Department History of United States Decision Making In Vietnam." and will be available to the public by late October, 1971. The volumes will contain approximately 2.500.000 words in approximately 3,000 pages and will be popularly known as the "Senator Gravel Edition of the Pentagon Papere". STAIR stated that his company which is the publishing and of the Unitarian universalist Association is a non-profit organization which normally publishes and distributes books for use by students, libraries and schools. Because of these publishing activities, his company would be geared to publish and distribute this type of publication.

described the information made available to the Beacon Press as being 95% of the complete memorandum received by (former) Defense Secretary MCNAMARA in response to the memorandum he requested outlining the United States involvement in the Vietnam Var. He emphasized that his company would publish the complete unabridged, uneditored material that it received from Senator GRAVEL. After announcing the type of material available to the Beacon Press for publishing, referred to the work to be published as the MCNAMARA Memorandum and explained that that term was used to note that the work to be published was the entire result except for the 5% which his company did not receive of the material furnished to MCNAMARA as a result of the requestfor a study of United States involvement in the Vietnam War. stated that in publishing these volumes, his company would have 265 documents which he reiterated were "authentic" documents prepared for Secretary MCNAMARA.

stated that his company believes that this material needs to be made available now to students and other interested persons and not at a future date and for that reason it will be rushed into printing in a much faster manner than is normally used by his company so that it will be available by late October, 1971. He added that his company feels that this information can be utilized by students and historians now and in future decades.

will be furnished at a price of $45 in cloth bound per set and $20 in a paper bound set.

conference was opened to questions from those present. A question was asked if this study would reveal anything not previously published and re-emphasized that he did not wish to refer to anything previously published anywhere since that material may have been shortened or abridged or editored in some way. He reported that his company planned to publish the "authentic" documents provided to Secretary MCNAMARA following the completion of the Victnam Study.

"authentic" did he mean to imply that the papers previously published were not accurate documents and he replied that he did not wish to direct any comments toward material previously published but wanted only to deal with that which his company would publish.

was asked if his company anticipated any "reprisal" from the "Government" for publishing this material and he replied that his company had not been contacted by any representative of the United States Government and he did not anticipate any "reprisal" since the information was, to his knowledge, "public information" and his company was publishing it as a public service. He added that Senator GRAVEL who gave this information to the Beacon Press, had presented this information to his subcommittee of the Senate on June 29, 1969.

was asked why his company was chosen for this task and he replied that Senator GRAVEL is known to be a Unitarian though not too active a Unitarian and this might have motivated him to some degree, however, he felt the reason was more probably because his firm was already engaged in distributing this type of material to scholars, libraries and schools in book form.

Continuing, stated that his company responded to the "sense of courage" displayed by Senator GRAVEL when he made this information public on June 29, 1971, and wrote him a letter proposing that his firm publish the material. Senator GRAVEL accepted the proposal of the Beacon Press and now the books will be published. Stated that these volumes will not be copywrighted and will be published at considerable expense to the Beacon Press. He stated that because of the speed to be utilized in getting this work published, the cost for publishing will be approximately 4 times the normal cost of publishing by his company.

A question was asked concerning a parallel between the release of these "Pentagon Documents" by Senator GMAVEL to the Beacon Press in order to make this information known to the American people compared to the release by Dr. DANIEL ELLSBERG of the 47 volume "Pentagon Documents" to the New York Times, also so that the American people would be aware of this information. Teplied he did not want to draw any parallel between the two situations.

During the press conference fended off any questions relating to the previously published Pentagon Papers compared with the documents which his firm is scheduled to publish. He re-emphasized that his company's work would be the actual narrative and not a "boiled down version of the NCNAMARA Study". When questioned regarding the fact that only 95% of the NCNAMARA Study was made available to his company and would be published by that company stated that the 95% figure was an estimation on his company's part of the amount of the total MCNAMARA Vietnam Study that was not made available. After numerous questions were asked of him as to why 5% of the study was missing such as "did these papers reveal the peace negotiations or to the extremely sensitive matters" replied, "We don't know."

was asked if there was any connection between these documents which his firm plans to publish and those documents which have recently been runnored to have been offered for publishing to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and Harvard University Presses and again he stated he only wanted to refer to the documents that his company had which had been received from Senator GRAVEL. He stated he would not comment about other people who were attempting to give "Pentagon Papers" to the MIT and Harvard University Presses and added that the only history that he knows of the documents his company will publish is that they were in Senator GRAVEL's possession and were given to his company by Senator GRAVEL. He noted that Senator GRAVEL did not seek these papers, they were presented to him.

in respect to a question stated that Senator GRAVEL's purpose in releasing these documents for publication in general was that he felt if the American people knew of these decisions being made by the Government on a day to day basis, they would not have allowed the United States to get into the position it is in today with regard to Vietnam and Southeast Asia. Because of the secrecy used by the Government covering these decisions, the system of "checks and balances" was not allowed to assume its normal role. Now the American people can know what has been going on and in the future because of access to such documents, will never allow the United States to become involved in a situation as it is today. The press conference, which was covered partly by TV and press representatives, concluded at 3:50 p.m.

It is noted that during this press conference three news handouts were distributed. These were "NEWS from United States Senator GRAVEL, Alaska", which contained background information pertaining to Senator GRAVEL and his statement before the subcommittee on public building and grounds on June 29, 1971, and "NEWS" from Beacon Press, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts, dated August 16, 1971. which was released at 3 p.m. eastern daylight time on August 17, 1971, which announced that Senator GRAVEL chose the Beacon Press to publish a 4 volume Penzagon Study and . excerpts from United States Senator GRAVEL's speech before the Commonwealth Club of California. San Francisco, California, on August 17. 1971, which setforth GRAVEL's canouncement of the fact that the Beacon Press of Boston, Massachusetts, would publish a 4 volume edition of the complete text and supporting documents which he released on June 29, 1971, from the Pentagon Study and his reasons for making that information available for publication.

stated that PATRICIA ELLSEERG was often indecisive and relied upon advice from her hysband and lirs. MARX when a decision was to be made concerning decorating arrangements. mentioned that, during most of this period after his initial meeting with the ELLSBERGS, the apartment at 10 Hilliard Street was cluttered with several cartons but explained that this did not seem unusual since he knew that Patalola Elizabino had an apartment in les York City and traveled back and forth, living out of both places simultaneously. Finally, with regard to the ELLSBERGS, said that theirs was a strictly professional relationship and that, although they were cordial, he never got as personally involved with them as clients as was normal for his business. He described DANIEL ELLSBERG as a serious intellectual who rarely spoke of insignificant matters or engaged in small talk and spent most of his time in his study reading and writing. Isaid he dealt mostly with PATRICIA ELLSBERG when discussing decorating details. When asked if the ELLSBERGS ever requested information about locksmiths, advised that PATRICIA ELLSBERG requested that a secondary lock be. placed on the rear door. He stated that he was unsure of the exact date that this lock was put on the door. then furnished the name of a carpenter sub-contractor who assisted him in working on the apartment as -can be reached through Codmen Corporation, telephone /42-5200.

advised his first recollection of knowledge of the existence of the Mc Namara Vietnam Study occurred in October and December, 1969, during meetings at the Center for International Studies at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) where WILLIAM BUIDY, a Research Associate, had gathered a number of colleagues at MIT together for critical discussions regarding a book being prepared by BUIDY on the Vietnam situation. REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperalist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations,: also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" moples "to armed self-defense." was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary Mational Steering Committee (NSJ) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the poential for social revolution lies in workers.

it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist," Leninist revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization." FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

DANIEL ELLSBERG

SPEECH GIVEN AUGUST-20, 1971 AT

24TH CONGRESS OF NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

AT COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY,

FORT COLLINS, COLORADO

Daniel Ellsberg addressed an audience of approximately two thousand persons at the Colorado State University (CSU) gymnosium. He stated that the illegality of the war encompassing Vietnem, Laos and Cambodia has been apparent to women, blacks, poor people and students, but has largely been invisible to white, middle-aged men. He said too many students have been jailed for their protests against the war, and too few older people. Me stated that it appears as though many parents have given their approval to their sons being sacrificed in war.

mistake, it is a national crime. He said Americans must do all they can to bring the war to an end. This includes going to jail, if need be, in protest of the war and using your body in any way you can in ways of protest. He craised the War Resistance League for its efforts and for its members who have gone to prison in protest of the war.

Ellsberg stated that it is still essential that Congress realize the illegal, unconstitutional aspects of the own if it is to be ended. He said that the only way the United States could see that war is criminal and murderous is for Congressmen to act like they mean what they say about ending the war. Congressmen could demonstrate their commitmed to end the war by a filibuster when the draft question comes up again, he said, and he suggested the filibuster could include a reading of the Pentagon Papers.

DANIEL ELLSBIRG

SPEECH CIVE'T AUGUST 20, 1971 AT .

24TH CONGRESS OF MATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Ellsberg made reference to the record telephone strike and said he never worried about his telephone service being interrupted. He stated that the Government was so interested in who he made calls to that they made sure his telephone was in working order. During the early part of his speech, the public address system was not functioning properly. Ellsberg said, "If there are any FBI in the audience, would you come sup on stage and fix this stuff. He remaining hopes to bring about authoritative action which is essential for ending the war. He said that first, Congress should be more informed about the war and how they have been misled; end lied to. He stated this is the type information contained in the Pentagon Papers. He said that secondly, it would take personal action by himself, Congressmen and students. He traced the history of his involvement in the Pentagon Papers case. He stated that two years ago four things happened which started his own personal story of trying to end the war. These four things were:

- 1. realization by close friends that the war is not ending
- completed reading 7,000 pages of the Pertagon Papers
- 3. the War Moratorium in September, 1969
- 4. realization that a personal example was necessary

At this time he said he became convinced that releasing the papers would be his commitment to the cause of ending the war.

Ellsberg repeated that all war activity should be shared with the emerican public, and this was the reason for his releasing the Pantagon Papers. He stated that because of the war this country now has too many political prisoners in its jails. He said that the time has come for the United States to great amnesty to all people who have refused to agree with the war. He said that hunting season of the civilians of Laos, Cambodia and Viacnam should be over. He said it should not be a crime to refuse to fight or die in a war like this one.

has come for action by students, blacks and all concerned to show the Government leaders what they must do to free us from this war.

The August 21, 1970 edition of 'The Rocky Mountain News' and the August 24, 1971 edition of the 'Denver Post.' deily Denver, Coltrado newspapers, revealed that Filsberg held a news conference after his speech and indicated he has knowledge of other secret documents that deal with crises and the United States' involvement in them. He said he thinks the public ought to know about them and Congress has a right to know about them. He said he does not want to release the content of these documents but whether the papers are released is up to the Covernment or perhaps Congress, itself,

In his letter, Mardian has requested coverage of certain leads which are pertinent and have been referred to the field for investigative attention. He has requested coverage of certain other leads which were already subject of pending inquiry in the field and which were based on information recently developed in our investigation. He further requested coverage of certain leads which have already been covered and the results of which coverage had already been furnished to the Department. Mardian has indicated there was no information in Departmental files regarding one who was named last week by the press as the individual who, acting on behalf of Senator Mike Gravel (D-Alaska), has arranged for publication of the "McNamara Study" by Beacon Press of Boston. Information dealers as previously been furnished the Department and Mardian is being so advised. The Bureau was also requested to develop information regarding telephone calls made by Ellsberg from various hotels and inns where he has stayed. Portions of this information had previously been developed and sent to the Department. We were further asked to obtain all travel vouchers of Ellsberg while an employee of the Rand Corporation in Santa Monica, California, and to conduct logical investigation. In this regard we have developed and reported considerable information regarding travel by Ellsberg and will continue to do so. Enclosure Lant 8-30-71 65-74060 ERH:bjpo (8) SFP 2 1971

LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION TO THE PRESS

To summarize, for information, data received during the night from offices involved in our continuing investigations of alleged leaks of classified data to the press.

MC LEK (Daniel Ellsberg): Ellsberg and his wife arrived in Los Angeles, California, from Denver, Colorado, 8/27/71 and stayed at the Las Tunas Motel until afternoon of 8/29/71. During stay at motel, Ellsberg was noted by motel employee to have made a long-distance telephone call to Washington, D. C., and was overheard to have made a statement, 'If I can get hold of the right kind of newspaperman....' After departure from the motel a long-distance telephone call was received there for Ellsberg, identity of caller unknown, with motel employees referring the call to the residence of a known acquaintance of Ellsberg, based on belief that he would be there, having made a call to that residence during his stay at the motel.

On 9/1/71 an employee of Bekins Van and Storage Company at Los Angeles advised that Ellsberg made an appointment for 9/2/71 to remove a carton from items he had previously stored at Bekins 9/14/70. He identified carton as being marked either "memoirs" or "memories." This information was furnished telephonically to Internal Security Division of Department of Justice and, based thereon, Internal Security Division issued a subpoena for all of Ellsberg's effects stored at Bekins for presentation to Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles. United States Marshal's Office, Los Angeles, at 3 p. m. yesterday advised that a Marshal and an Assistant United States Attorney were en route to Bekins with the subpoena calling for the items to be presented at 4 p. m. yesterday.

Memorandum to C. D. Brennan RE: LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION TO THE PRESS 62-98194

Investigation at Boston revealed yesterday that Ellsberg had purchased a camera from a local camera store in Cambridge, Massachusetts, on 3/22/71. This definitely pins down Ellsberg's presence in Cambridge during the period in March when Neil and Susan Sheehan are alleged to have been duplicating classified documents to be used by "The New York Times" in its subsequent series on the "McNamara Study." We have not heretofore been able to positively state that Ellsberg and/or his wife were in Cambridge during the period of document duplication.

Professor Jeroue Rothenberg College of Liberal Arts Northwestern University Evanston, Illinois

Dear Jerry:

Since, as must have been apparent, I like to argue, I found my brief visit in Eventon charmously stimulating; it's good to face a cold wind occasionally, both in torus of climate and controversy. The visit gave me enough energy to finish my thesis, which I cent off to Harverd a couple of weeks ago: 400 pages, mostly written since my visit, and of course, devastating to the positions of Strotz, Modigliani, etc.

My vife, I am alad to say, has entirely recovered from the effects of her operation, and is beginning to recover from the effects of my thesis-writing activity.

I hope I'll see you again before long.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Ellsberg Economics Department

Professor Harry Johnson Department of Hoonsmies University of Chicago Chicago 37, Illinois

Dear Harry:

It was good to see you and your wife again, and I enjoyed the chance to address your seminar. It was particularly satisfying to me to learn of Selwyn Becker's work, which tends to correlerate sees of my conjectures experimentally.

The vicit gave me enough energy to come back and finish my thanks, which I cout off to Harvard lest week: "Piek, Exbiguity and Decision," how pages, mostly written since I can you. After leaving Chicago, I spont three days arguing with Savage in Ann Arbor; I haven't converted him yet, but he hasn't yet-read my thesis.

I hope I'll see you again before long.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Ellsberg Economics Department

Dear Dan:

We have never received a list of your expenses here. We have been waiting for them in order to pay you for your trip. Would you kindly list your travel and living expenses specific to Evanstonthat is, whatever Chicago did not pay you so far: (I take it they did pay for your trip to Los Angeles-Chicago and back.)

We very much enjoyed having you and look forward to having you again.

I truly hope that your wife is well.

_As ever,
